Attachment 1 – United States of America vs Rocky CARRIZALES IV

A cooperating defendant provided information that Rocky CARRIZALES IV was distributing narcotics in Carrizo Springs, Texas. At three different times on October 11, 2016, the Dimmit County Sheriff's Office conducted controlled narcotics purchases from CARRIZALES IV.

On all occasions, CARRIZALES agreed to sell narcotics to a cooperating defendant.

On October 11, 2016 at approximately 11:18 AM, CARRIZALES IV sold approximately 0.4 grams of a white crystallized substance, suspected to be crystal methamphetamine, packaged in a small clear plastic baggie, to a cooperating defendant for $40 US Dollars at 1778 FM 1556 in Carrizo Springs, Texas.

On October 11, 2016 at approximately 5:53 PM, CARRIZALES IV sold approximately 0.5 grams of a white crystallized substance, suspected to be crystal methamphetamine, packaged in a small clear plastic baggie, to a cooperating defendant for $50 US Dollars at 1778 FM 1556 in Carrizo Springs, Texas

On October 11, 2016 at approximately 6:40 PM, CARRIZALES IV sold approximately 0.3 grams of a white crystallized substance, suspected to be crystal methamphetamine, packaged in two small clear plastic baggies, to a cooperating defendant for $40 US Dollars at 1778 FM 1556 in Carrizo Springs, Texas.

All three baggies of suspected narcotics were field-tested utilizing Narcotics Identification Kits. All three returned positive for the chemical characteristics of methamphetamine.

All of these transactions were audio and video recorded.
